President's message

Welcome home Sugarloafers,

As usual for this time of year, we have been having some frosty nights and some warm days. Last week, we all got excited when the snowmakers fired up the guns to make sure everything was up to snuff. You will remember last spring that John Diller said we would be making snow, weather permitting, a few weeks earlier. This would hopefully allow the mountain to open with more terrain.

Danny Barker, the director of Grooming and Snowmaking, was recently filling me in on some of this summer's on-mountain improvements. A new bridge was installed on Slasher, along with new snowmaking pipe, making this important connector trail much easier to navigate, and enabling it to open earlier. Another widening project was Peavey X-cut; there will be a lot more room at the entrances from Hayburner and King's Landing, making the cross-cut much more user friendly.

Also, my view from the Ski Club office is getting better. The east end of the Base Lodge is getting a much needed facelift. Between that and the new paint job on Gondola Village, things are looking pretty spiffy on this side of the mountain.

The big news this year is the return in March of the US Alpine National Championships; the last time we hosted this event was in 2008. It will be exciting to watch the US Ski Team once again race on our Narrow Gauge trail. Although it is certainly a biggie, the US Alpine Nationals is just one of a very full slate of events lined up for this season. In March and early April, we will be hosting Nor Am speed finals and U16 Alpine Championships, as well as the annual Seth Wescott Snowboardercross event, USCSA Championships and several freestyle events. Besides having great competition venues, Sugarloaf has a great ski club that supports all levels of competition; this is a big reason that high level events keep coming back to us. All of you who are part of the Sugarloaf Mountain Ski Club should be very proud.

As you can see from our calendar we will have a full slate of social events this year, from the ever popular Oktoberfest, beer tastings, and midweek socials, to our annual signature event, the Snowball. This year, the event features the very popular group North of Nashville. I hope to see many of you at some or all of these events.

Have a great season, and we'll see you on the hill,
Bruce

Oktoberfest at Homecoming Weekend

Peter Van Alstine, Social Committee Chair

Join us once again and celebrate Oktoberfest during Homecoming Weekend on Saturday, October 11th, at the Outdoor Center. Festivities will begin at 4:30 pm with a cocktail hour for all Sugarloaf Ski Club members, and prospective members. Wine and German beer will be served.

At 5:30 pm, an Oktoberfest dinner will be served. The all-German dinner will feature bratwurst, cabbage soup, sauerkraut, potato, and apple strudel. German beer will be included until the keg runs dry. Non-alcoholic beverages will be included, or you may BYOB. This will be a fun event! Ski Club members and the general public are invited. The cost is $22/person.

Serving up Bratwurst for the Oktoberfest dinner at the Outdoor center.

Dinner reservations must be made by Tuesday, October 7, online at the Sugarloaf Ski Club store, by email: sugarloafskiclub@tds.net, or leave a message at the club office: 237-6955.

The Ski Club looks forward to seeing its members and all Sugarloafers at Oktoberfest on October 11th at the Outdoor Center.

Club members Mary Collins and Bob & Betty Crane catch up on their summer's activities.

Four Sugarloafers to be inducted into the Maine Ski Hall of Fame at Lost Valley on Friday evening, October 24, 2014

With the induction of the Class of 2014, the number of skiers recognized by the Hall of Fame since its first induction banquet in 2003 will reach 105.

The Maine Ski Hall of Fame was formed to recognize those Maine skiers that have brought distinction to Maine skiing or made significant contributions to the sport. They may include competitors, coaches, instructors, ski patrollers, ski area builders, managers and volunteers. As a division of the Ski Museum of Maine, the Hall of Fame records the history of Maine skiing through the biographies produced for each class.

Brud Folger was a successful competitive skier in high school and college who made his mark in coaching. He coached the UMO ski team for 28 years, competing in NCAA Division I against the top teams in the country. During his tenure he had many skiers qualify in all four events, and his teams won the Maine State Ski Championships four times in a row.

Nikki Pilavakis-Davoren won her titles in boarder cross before it was an Olympic event, which is why her victories are unknown to many. She started on a newly formed European tour and won enough prize money to focus on SBX full time. In 1999, Nikki won the title of Women's World Champion. In four short years she had become the best female SBX competitor in the world.

Rob and Anna Parisien are joining their sister Julie in the Maine Ski Hall of Fame, becoming the first family to have three siblings so honored. While Julie is better known, Rob and Anna had outstanding ski racing careers leading to the Olympics in 1992 for Rob and in 1994 for Anna. After attending Burke Mountain Academy, where both had impressive junior results, it was on to USSA competition. Anna dominated J-II and J-I competition, earning a place on the US Ski Team in 1991. She retired from ski racing after the 1994 season at age 21. Rob earned his spot on the US Ski Team in 1987 and was the top American finisher in GS in the 1991 World Championships, and in the Albertville Olympics in 1992. Like his sister, he retired early to attend college, graduating from the University of Colorado in 1995 and Dartmouth Medical School in 1999.

The other four inductees include Carl Burnett who was paralyzed below the waist in a car crash at the age of five and took up disabled skiing at age 12. Three years later he swept all four junior national titles. Named to the US Disabled Team in 1998, Carl went on to compete for nine years in Nor-Am World Cup and Olympics as a sit skier. He skied in the Paralympics in Salt Lake City in 2002, and in Torino, Italy in 2006, where he finished 5th in the Downhill.

Bill Briggs was born in Augusta without a hip socket on his right side, and had to have surgeries as a child simply to make it possible for him to walk. While his doctors believed he would eventually spend his life in a wheel chair, he proved to be a natural athlete who taught himself to ski. He was certified as a ski instructor and became associated with Snow King Mountain in Wyoming. It was on much bigger mountains where he became a legend in skiing. After completing a series of climbs and descents of major mountains, including Mt. Rainier, Bill had his hip permanently fused and in June, 1971, after hiking to the top, he skied the 13,770 foot Grand Teton.

His feats led to his induction into the US National Ski Hall of Fame.

Tom Gyger is one of those ski patrolmen who have done a lot more than just show up and patrol weekends. Rather than settle for simply meeting the standards of a Senior Patroller, Tom got involved as a first aid instructor and served on the first aid staff of the Eastern Division's Junior Seminar. He then went on to serve on the National Junior Seminar's Medical Staff. When National Ski Patrol transitioned from Red Cross First Aid to its own Winter Emergency Care program, Tom was in the middle of the work to make sure everything went smoothly. For his work and devotion he was awarded the NSP Gold Merit Star.

Dave Carter was an outstanding cross country competitor in high school and college, but his biggest contribution came in developing cross country ski centers in Oxford and Bethel, where he led countless young athletes into the sport. By introducing so many to the sport, Carter has enhanced the cross country experience for skiers throughout Western Maine.

Reserve your seat now for the Maine Ski Hall of Fame dinner on October 24th at Lost Valley. Go to www.skimuseumofmaine.org to reserve your seat early as it is usually a sellout. As well, if you know of someone deserving of this recognition, nomination information is on the museum website.

Chateau des Tagues razed to make way for Sugarbowl

A Valley landmark has been razed to make way for a new bowling alley and restaurant. "Sugarbowl" will open this winter.

One of the original "Valley" hotels, the Chateau des Tagues, was built by Sugarloaf Ski Club member Leo Tague. It was a smaller building, simply called "Tagues", and it was across the street from the most recent location. After a fire leveled the original building, Leo decided to build something grander on the present day site. He called it "Chateau des Tagues". Along with Judson's and later The Red Stallion, it was one of the "places to go" in the Valley.

Chateau des Tagues changed hands many times over the years, and operated under various names. Among them: The Mayor's Place, The Carrabassett Valley Yacht Club, and finally, the Carrabassett Inn. Below is a timeline, put together by "an old Sugarloafer", of its owners.

7th Annual Fall BBQ Sunday, Oct. 12th

Each year, we hold a barbecue to say thank you to our members and friends for helping to support our vision of developing 180 miles of trails, constructing 12 eco-friendly huts and ensuring free year-round public access to our trail system.

This year's event will be held on Sunday, Oct. 12th from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at our Poplar Hut. The menu will feature hearty, home-cooked items like squash soup, home-made bread, pulled pork, baked beans, apple cider and more. Beer and wine will be available for purchase. Members eat for free, while non-members pay $15/adult and $7/child, or sign up for a membership, eat lunch for free, and support our mission.

Guided Fall Foliage Hikes

Join Maine Huts & Trails for a guided hike up Bigelow Mountain. Enjoy stunning views from the summit including views of Maine's fourth largest lake, Flagstaff. Spend the day taking in the natural beauty of Western Maine's colorful fall foliage. Bigelow Mountain is one of Maine's 4,000-foot peaks and, while the hike is challenging, going with a guide provides information on the area as well as the comfort of hiking with a group.

The hike is included during two-night stays at Stratton Brook Hut Oct. 17-19 (hike on the 18th) and Oct. 24-26 (hike on the 25th). The stay includes two dinners, two breakfasts, and a packed trail lunch to enjoy while on the Bigelow summit. Call 207-265-2400 to book your stay.

Fall Women's Weekend October 17-19

Enjoy a guided hike or bike ride, yoga, wine tasting, painting and personal development classes at the Fall Women's Weekend, Oct. 17-19 at Stratton Brook Hut. Women's Weekend guests will enjoy all of the amenities offered at Stratton Brook Hut, including comfortable beds, hot showers and facilities, a gear shuttle, and locally sourced meals, along with a special wine presentation.

The full weekend itinerary is available at Mainehuts.org/calendar.

New CVA Coaches

The CVA Alpine and Snowboard programs have grown significantly since last season. To keep up with this growth, CVA has brought four new coaches on board. The three alpine coaches are Matt Murphy, David Hamblet, and Sean Chatellard. Benjamin Bisson fills out the roster as a snowboard coach.

Matt Murphy will be heading-up the CVA U16 program. Matt started his career with the CVA Weekend Program, and then worked as an intern with the Swedish National

Alpine Men's Team. He then moved west to work with the Park City Ski Team as the U16 alpine coach, and the University of Utah Alpine Ski Team. Matt returned east to coach with the Stratton Mountain School in Vermont as the Men's FIS coach. Over the last twelve years, Matt has been a private coach to many top performing athletes in the Northeast. In addition to private coaching, Matt was the Alpine Program Director/U16 Coach for the Black Mountain Alpine Ski Team in Jackson, NH. Matt is a certified USSA Alpine Coach, Level 3 USSA National Sports Science Acad emy, PSIA level 2 Certified, Certified Fitness Consultant, Certified Nutrition Counselor and founder of Newtrition 360. During Matt's coaching career he has guided athletes from every program to become top performers. Many of the athletes Matt has coached have gone on to the U.S. Ski Team, NorAm, NCAA, Eastern Cups, and success at the local and regional levels.

David Hamblet will serve as the Alpine Weekend Program Manager and an assistant U14/U16 Coach. David raced from age 8 to 18, and then got his degree in Business Admin istration from the UNH Whittemore School of Business. After college, he spent 5 years coaching at the high school level, where he coached three boys to state championship titles. David then went back to racing for a few years, competing in the New England Masters program and taking part in one regional and one National Championship event. In 2007, he went back into coaching at Gunstock Ski Club (GSC), where he coached at the J5 level for a few years. For the past three seasons he has been the lead CVA J4/U14 coach and full-time midweek coach for U10's to U14's. This past season, along with heading the U14 program with 30+ athletes and 4 coaches, David was the lead coach for GSC's brand new winter-term with 16 athletes, three coaches and two teachers. During the past three seasons he has coached 9 athletes to Eastern Regional events and four to Can-Ams, with one podium finish at Can-Ams. During his eight years at GSC, David has served on the Board of Directors for seven years, six of those as Vice President of the organization.

Sean Chatellard will join Doug Williams and Chip Cochrane in coaching the U18/U21 athletes. Sean was born and raised in the ski towns of Megève and Chamonix in the French Alps - he grew up right in the center of the alpine ski industry. Mentored and coached by his father Jean-Pierre Chatellard (World Cup and Olympic Ski Coach), Sean was privileged to travel the world and train with World Cup skiers throughout his ski racing career. After racing FIS, Sean played three years as a semi-professional tennis player on the Futures (ITF) and FFT tours in Europe. He then returned to the United States to pursue a career in ski coaching. For the past two years Sean has been coaching at the Aspen Valley Ski Club as a U16 coach, and coaching at a world class tennis academy in South Carolina during the summer months. In addition, Sean speaks four languages: English, French, Japanese and Spanish, and is also a free-lance cinematographer video/photo editor. Sean's really looking forward to bringing his international knowledge and experiences as a high level athlete and coach to the CVA Alpine team.

Benjamin Bisson, an alumnus of CVA from the class of 2009, joins the coaching staff this year as head development coach. During his time at CVA he competed in the US Snowboarding Revolution Tour, Sprint Grand Prix, USASA Nationals, and Billabong World Junior Pro. He was a CVA Elite Team member and on the USASA All American Snow

"When You Want It Done Right The First Time"

Across Town Line Road from Hug's Restaurant, this landmark is at an entrance to Sugarloaf Village. The monument was designed and built by Sugarloaf Village resident and architect Charlie Hosford. He had a camp, which included a tower, in Sugarloaf Village, and it was featured in "Look" magazine in the 1960s.

The Birth of Sugarloaf Village

*Reprinted from Eastern Ski Bulletin, November 1960
"Year Round Recreational area Planned at Sugarloaf"*

Kingfield, Me — Plans for a permanent village and recreational area on an 1800-acre tract at the base of Sugarloaf mountain here have been announced.

Land for the development has been acquired by the Bigelow Corporation, headed by George Fred Terry III, of Waterville.

Terry said that while the development was prompted primarily by the growth of Sugarloaf Mountain as a major ski resort, the corporation envisions it as a year round recreational area.

Officers of the new corporation, in addition to Terry, include Adrian Asherman, Waterville, secretary-treasurer; Harvey Boynton, Kingfield, vice president, and Ralph Clark, Gardiner, clerk. Directors include George Terry, Adrian Asherman, Harvey Boynton, Jay Winter, Parker Poole and Alden MacDonald.

at Maine Huts & Trails. On three of the remaining Tuesdays this month – Oct. 7, 14 and 21 – residents of Franklin and Somerset Counties can stay overnight for half price at Poplar, Stratton Brook or Grand Falls huts. Advance reservations are required to receive the discount. Call 207-265-2400 to book your stay.

More Trails to Ride

Did you know that the Carrabassett Valley area has more than 45 miles of mountain bike trails for public use? Maine Huts & Trails allows mountain biking on nearly its entire trail network, with connections to the Narrow Gauge Path and other routes that make hut-to-hut biking possible. MH&T trails are open for riding through October, weather permitting. Mountain bikes with knobby tires are recommended on MH&T trails.

board Team. After graduating from CVA, Benjamin attended Westmont College, Santa Barbara, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in studio art. For many summers he has worked as waterfront director for Chop Point Camp, where he certified and oversaw all lifeguards, staff and campers. He has also worked as a certified Wilderness First Aid Trip Leader, tasked with leading wilderness hiking and canoeing trips into wilderness areas of New England. Most recently, he has been using his knowledge of marketing, social media, and Internet SEO as a real estate sales agent & marketing/web manager at Bisson Real Estate. Benjamin is looking forward to bringing his love of snowboarding and the outdoors to CVA's Development Team.
